!THIS NEWSLETTER 14 25-Jan-2011

Dear Friends!

Hi from cold Taiwan! Yes, the warm light in this recent picture with Cosmea flowers warms the heart in this chilly winter. I know many of you have to bear with snow and ice. But as Taiwan has no really heating systems, touching 8° it feels colder then Germany.

It looks like i am coming out of the Himalayas into the world of the 10th Zen-bull picture. This virtually ends a 7-year-open-retreat at The Cave to spend more time at ! THIS new place in Taiwan.

Yes, this is the BIG NEWS of another surprising change in my life! I didn't plan it nor do i know what it will bring. Yet it feels right to just surrender to what's happening. Still will keep The Cave near Manali and plan be there for the beautiful spring.

As so much positive feedback on the design and content of !THIS Newsletter came in we will keep this format. It means you will find a few teasers and by clicking on the blue links you can follow, what grabs your interest to more pictures, movies etc.

For my Taiwan friends: For the first time you will get a Chinese version of !THIS Newsletter!

YEAR OF THE RABBIT As the Chinese New Year is approaching, i send Love and Joy, Highs and Depths to all my (Taiwan) friends. I am looking forward to the red sky lamps (see background) where we write our wishes for the next year on. Last year i asked for healing of my knees. Last week after more then 2 years break i discovered i can still dance like crazy! I wish for this year i can share more of Being with you all. Well our center just started.

!THIS IS IT - OUR CENTER !THIS is our new integral baby in Taiwan! I just moved here and also the physical place is ready, many aspects still need to be organized to bring it to life. I will use !THIS for my retreats like AIM, teachings, individual sessions like awareness massage, counseling energy, emotions... !THIS -Our Center is located in the rice fields of Jhubei, Hsinchu, County (Google). The wooden hall is about 90m² and has good facilities like showers, garden, sleeping etc. Jhubei is well connected with High Speed Rail, trains and Freeway, sporting many good restaurants. If you want to offer something that supports people on their inner journeys, you are welcome to email me.

AIM-WHO IS IN? Osho Nisarga is a wonderful place to have a retreat! You can combine a visit with getting a taste of Tibetan spirit and the mighty Himalayas as the homes of the Dalai Lama and the Karmapa are just around the corner. I will give a full 4-Day-AIM-Who is In?-Retreat at Osho Nisarga near Dharamsala, December 01– 04, 2011. That is still some time, so you may find yourself before. If :) or if not :(welcome to click here for info and booking. You like to assist? We need you! Feel free to contact me!

!!! Spiritual Journey to Dharamsala. For our Taiwan friends we plan to organize a pilgrimage, which will include this retreat, sightseeing, mountain walking and (if they are available that time) meetings with Dalai Lama and Karmapa. Interested please email me and we will keep you updated.

SPIRITUALITY I always enjoy opportunities to put inner experiences into words thus making them more conscious. I wish we all can have more open ways in playing with inner views. Often spiritual circles are locked into their respective paths. I like the diversity of differences keeping the rebel alive and kicking and prefer sharing over fighting on different insights on the path – even when they do not confirm with masters and traditions. Thus we can learn and discover together. After all the universe is still expanding. Last year Viha Connection invited me to write an article about the inner voice. You are welcome to read “The Inner Call” on !THIS webpage.

FINALLY - THE GOSSIP: Jaya really had a bad time in December. The reason? Well the mother of all gossips: Love. He is reported to feel a lot better after he felt better. He is losing more hairs and wears caps most of the time now. Nevertheless he topped 400 Facebook friends despite being very choosy. We discovered a new Guru who is just manifesting, what our Being is dreaming of. Jaya reportedly commented: “We are not disciples we are buddies.” Jaya is getting 57 very soon and likes the song “Forever young” (lyrics) as his inner is as young as ever. And the last: The Aura Camera reveals that Jayadip is an Indigo adult.

Happy New Year with Love + Joy!
